Literary Devices

Terms & Quiz

This product contains a list of terms and a print-and-go quiz that you can use to help your students learn literary devices. Updated 9/7/2015 – Newly added: foldables for Interactive Notebooks including Elements of a Story, Plot Structure, and Literary Devices – print at 80-85%

Please respect all terms of use as detailed at the end of this document. Enjoy!

Did you know that you receive TPT credit for leaving feedback on products you have purchased from this store? Credit can be redeemed for future purchases. You can give feedback by going to the product page. Be sure to follow me for updates & freebies!

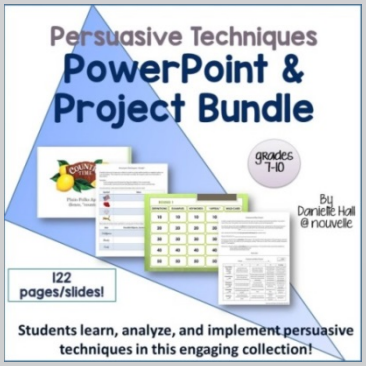

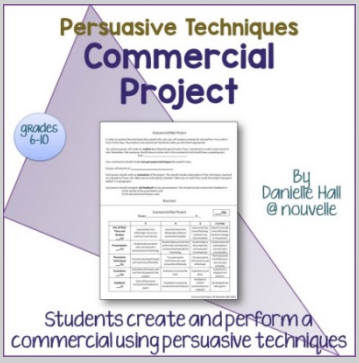

Thanks,
Danielle @ Nouvelle

You May Also Like...

Nouvelle on Pinterest | Nouvelle on TPT | Nouvelle Blog | Nouvelle on Facebook

Persuasive Techniques

Novel Studies

Photo & Graphic Credits: Lovin' Lit
Fonts: Kimberly Geswein (KG Red Hands, The Only Exception)

Literary Devices

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Antagonist | A character (or thing) that is the source of conflict in a literary work | Irony | When something unexpected happens or is said |
| Characterization | The way in which the author develops the personalities of the characters | Mood | The emotional atmosphere of a piece – how the reader "feels" |
| Climax | The "turning point" of the literary work | Motif | A recurring feature of a work that develops its theme |
| Conflict | A struggle between two or more forces (ex. Man vs. Nature) | Plot | The sequence of events in a work of literature |
| Dialogue | Direct speech between characters | Point of View | The perspective from which the story is told |
| Diction | Word choice to create a specific effect | Protagonist | The main character of a work – the one we "root for" |
| Exposition | The background information given at the beginning | Resolution | The moment when all of the loose ends are tied up and all of the questions answered |
| Falling Action | The results or effects of the climax | Rising Action | The "first hurdles" in the literary work |
| Flashback | Returning to an earlier time in order to clarify meaning in the present time | Setting | The time and place where the story occurs |
| Foreshadowing | Hinting at what is to come | Symbolism | An object, person, or place used to represent something else |
| Genre | Type or category in which a literary work belongs | Theme | The underlying main idea of a work – often an opinion about the subject |
| Imagery | Description evoking the use of the five senses | Tone | The author's attitude towards the subject or events |

https://www.teacherspayteachers.com/Store/Nouvelle
Literary Devices List & Quiz © Danielle Hall 2015
License for use by one teacher.
Please purchase additional licenses if necessary.

Literary Devices Quiz

I. Matching

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| A. Antagonist | 1. ___ | Hinting at what is to come |
| B. Characterization | 2. ___ | When something unexpected happens or is said |
| C. Exposition | 3. ___ | A recurring feature of a work that develops its theme |
| D. Foreshadowing | 4. ___ | A character (or thing) that is the source of conflict in a literary work |
| E. Imagery | 5. ___ | The background information given at the beginning |
| F. Irony | 6. ___ | An object, person, or place used to represent something else |
| G. Mood | 7. ___ | The way in which the author develops the personalities of the characters |
| H. Motif | 8. ___ | The results or effects of the climax |
| I. Rising Action | 9. ___ | The emotional atmosphere of a piece – how the reader "feels" |
| J. Symbolism | 10. ___ | Description evoking the use of the five senses |
| K. Falling Action | 11. ___ | The "turning point" of the literary work |
| L. Climax | 12. ___ | The "first hurdles" in the literary work |

II. Examples

13. "Let's go to the park," he said.

14. In 1895, in a small town in Kentucky, there was a schoolhouse.

15. Comedy, Drama, Suspense, Science-Fiction

16. Harry Potter, Frodo Baggins, Belle, Little Red Riding Hood

17. Man vs. Man, Man vs. Nature, Man vs. Society, Man vs. Self

18. Friendship, Overcoming obstacles, Evil is always punished

19. A character starts to remember an event from his childhood as he tries to figure out a problem in the present.

III. Your Turn

20. Rewrite the following sentence twice, using different diction.
"Have you studied for the test yet?" she asked, standing.

https://www.teacherspayteachers.com/Store/Nouvelle
Literary Devices List & Quiz © Danielle Hall 2015
License for use by one teacher.
Please purchase additional licenses if necessary.

Literary Devices Quiz (Answers)

I. Matching

A. Antagonist
B. Characterization
C. Exposition
D. Foreshadowing
E. Imagery
F. Irony
G. Mood
H. Motif
I. Rising Action
J. Symbolism
K. Falling Action
L. Climax

1. _D_ Hinting at what is to come
2. _F_ When something unexpected happens or is said
3. _H_ A recurring feature of a work that develops its theme
4. _A_ A character (or thing) that is the source of conflict in a literary work
5. _C_ The background information given at the beginning
6. _J_ An object, person, or place used to represent something else
7. _B_ The way in which the author develops the personalities of the characters
8. _K_ The results or effects of the climax
9. _G_ The emotional atmosphere of a piece – how the reader "feels"
10. _E_ Description evoking the use of the five senses
11. _L_ The "turning point" of the literary work
12. _I_ The "first hurdles" in the literary work

II. Examples

13. "Let's go to the park," he said. Dialogue
14. In 1895, in a small town in Kentucky, there was a schoolhouse. Setting
15. Comedy, Drama, Suspense, Science-Fiction Genre
16. Harry Potter, Frodo Baggins, Belle, Little Red Riding Hood Protagonist
17. Man vs. Man, Man vs. Nature, Man vs. Society, Man vs. Self Conflict
18. Friendship, Overcoming obstacles, Evil is always punished Theme
19. A character starts to remember an event from his childhood as he tries to figure out a problem in the present. Flashback

III. Your Turn

20. Rewrite the following sentence twice, using different diction.
"Have you studied for the test yet?" she asked, standing.

Some possibilities:
"Have you prepared for the exam yet?" she inquired, rising to her feet. (Formal)
"Yo, you crammed for the test?" she asked, standing (Informal)

https://www.teacherspayteachers.com/Store/Nouvelle
Literary Devices List & Quiz © Danielle Hall 2015
License for use by one teacher.
Please purchase additional licenses if necessary.

https://www.teacherspayteachers.com/Store/Nouvelle
ELA Vocabulary for Interactive Notebooks © Danielle Hall 2015
License for use by one teacher.
Please purchase additional licenses if necessary.

Elements of a Story

The sequence of events in a work of literature

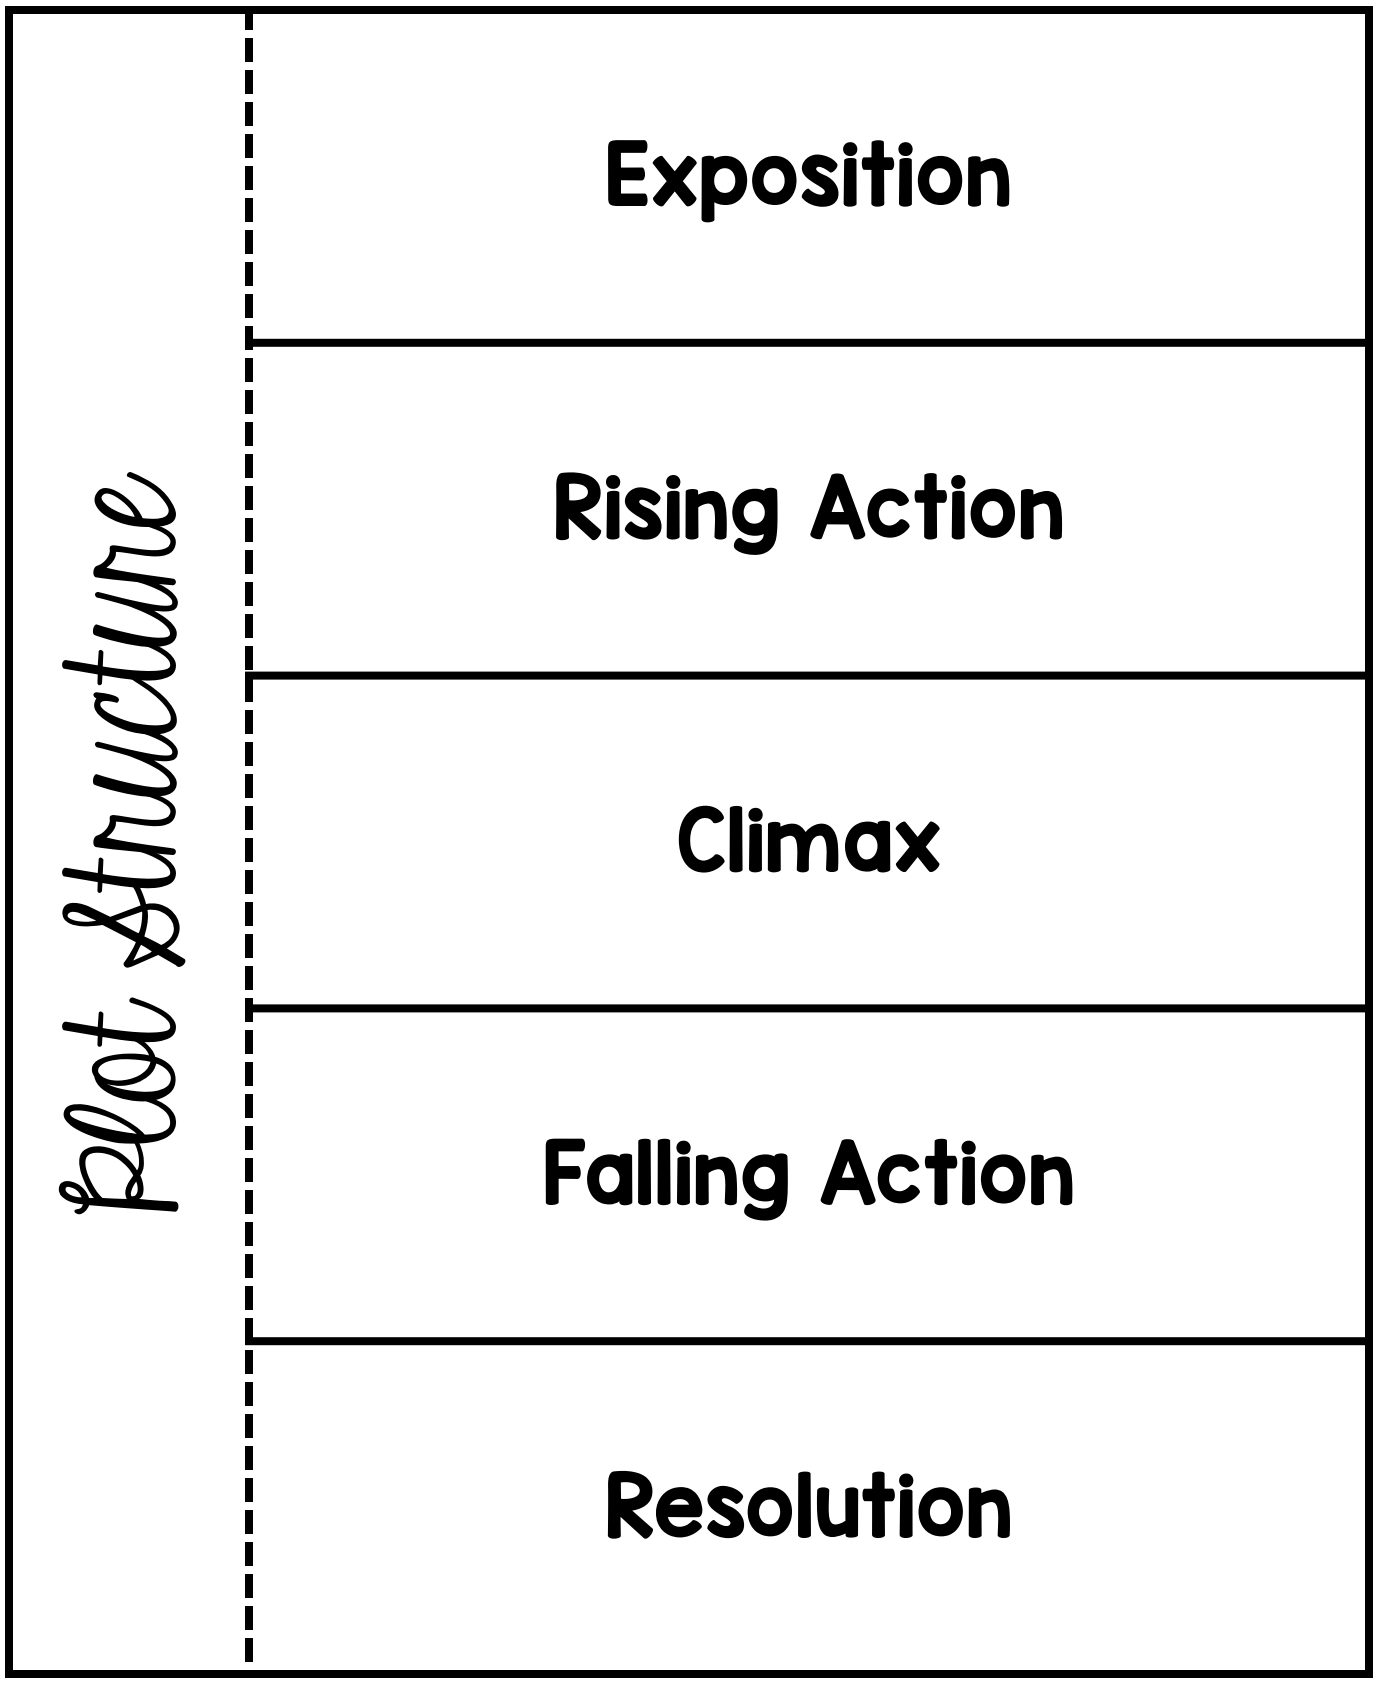

The people in the story

A struggle between two or more forces
(ex. Man vs. Nature)

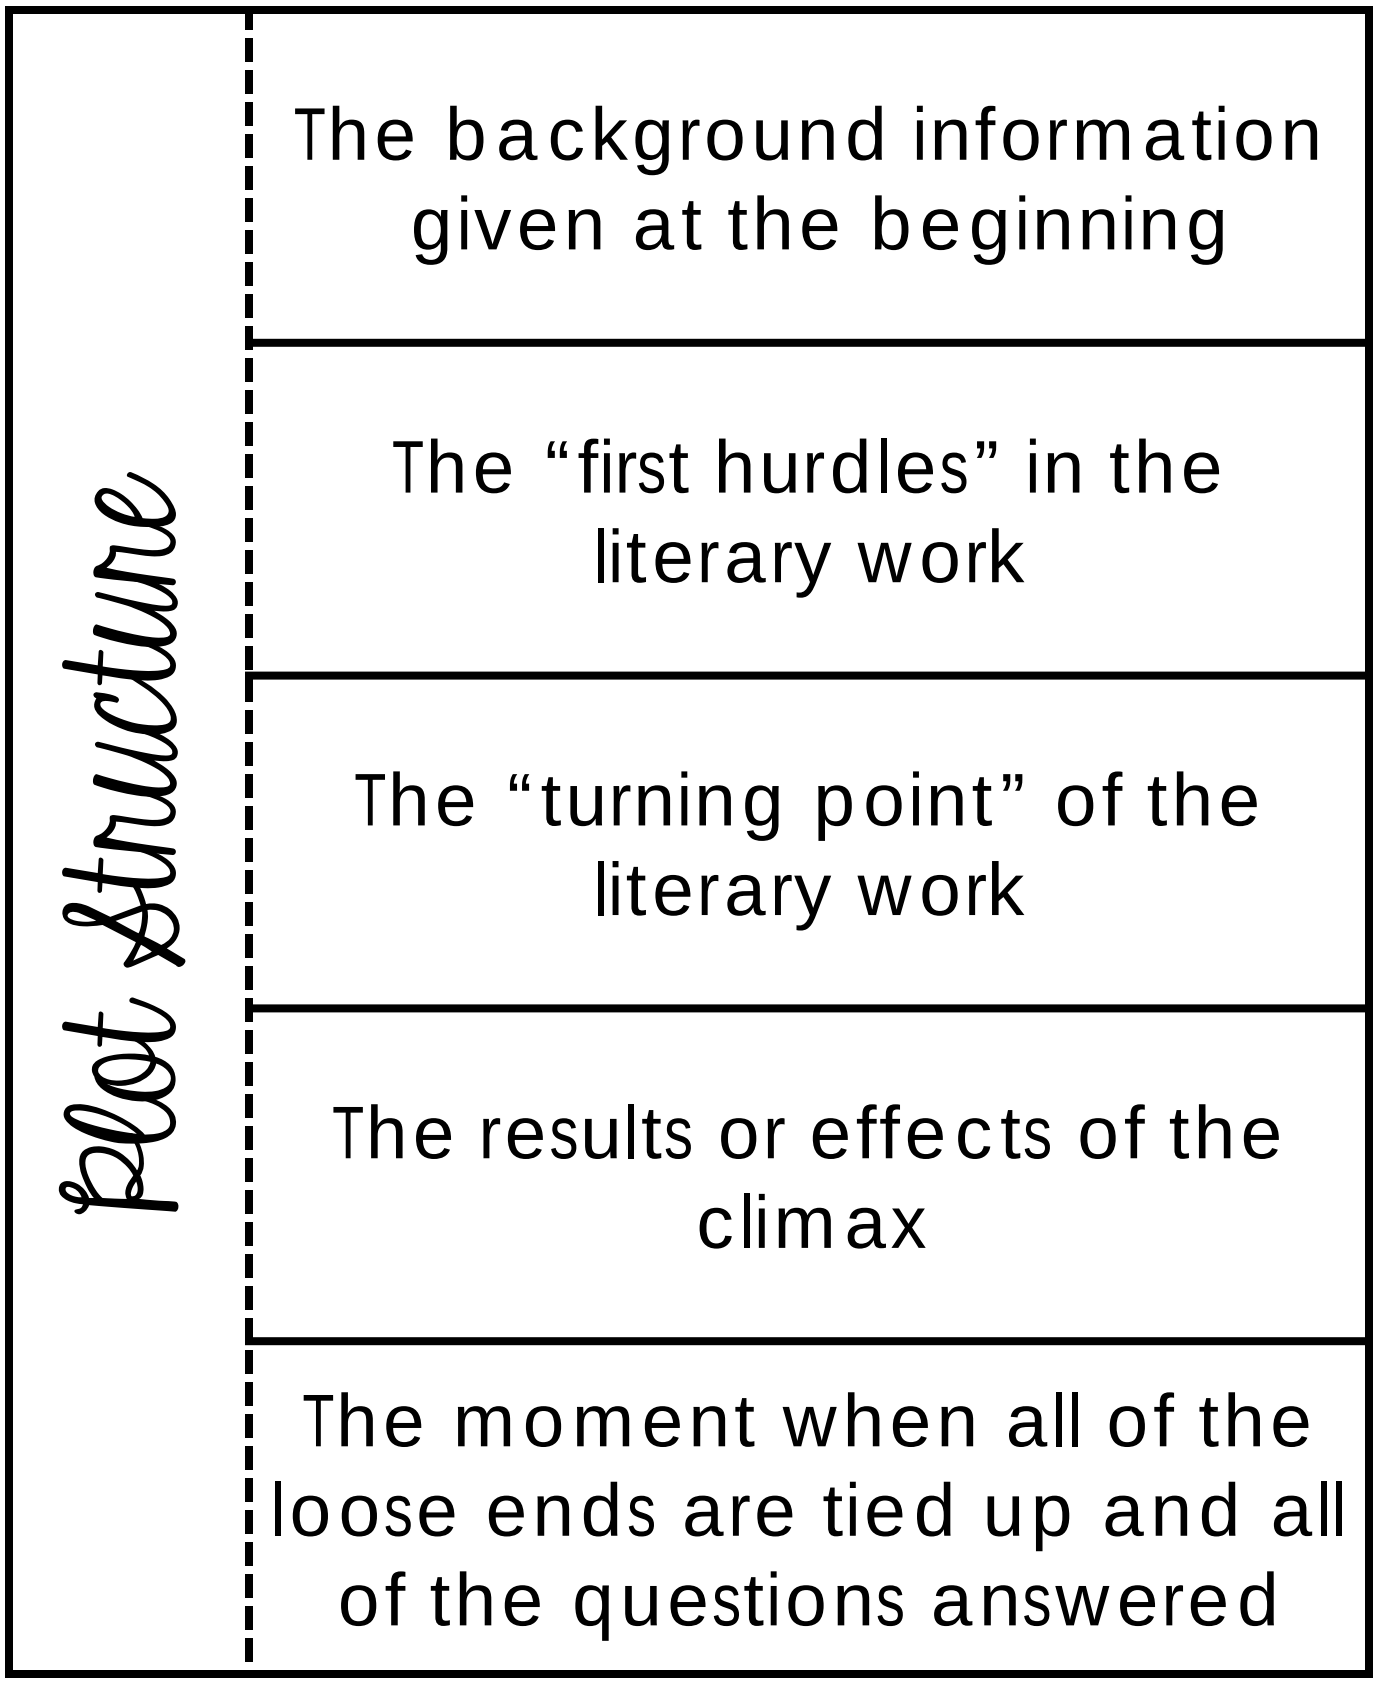

The underlying main idea of a work – often an opinion about the subject

The time and place where the story occurs

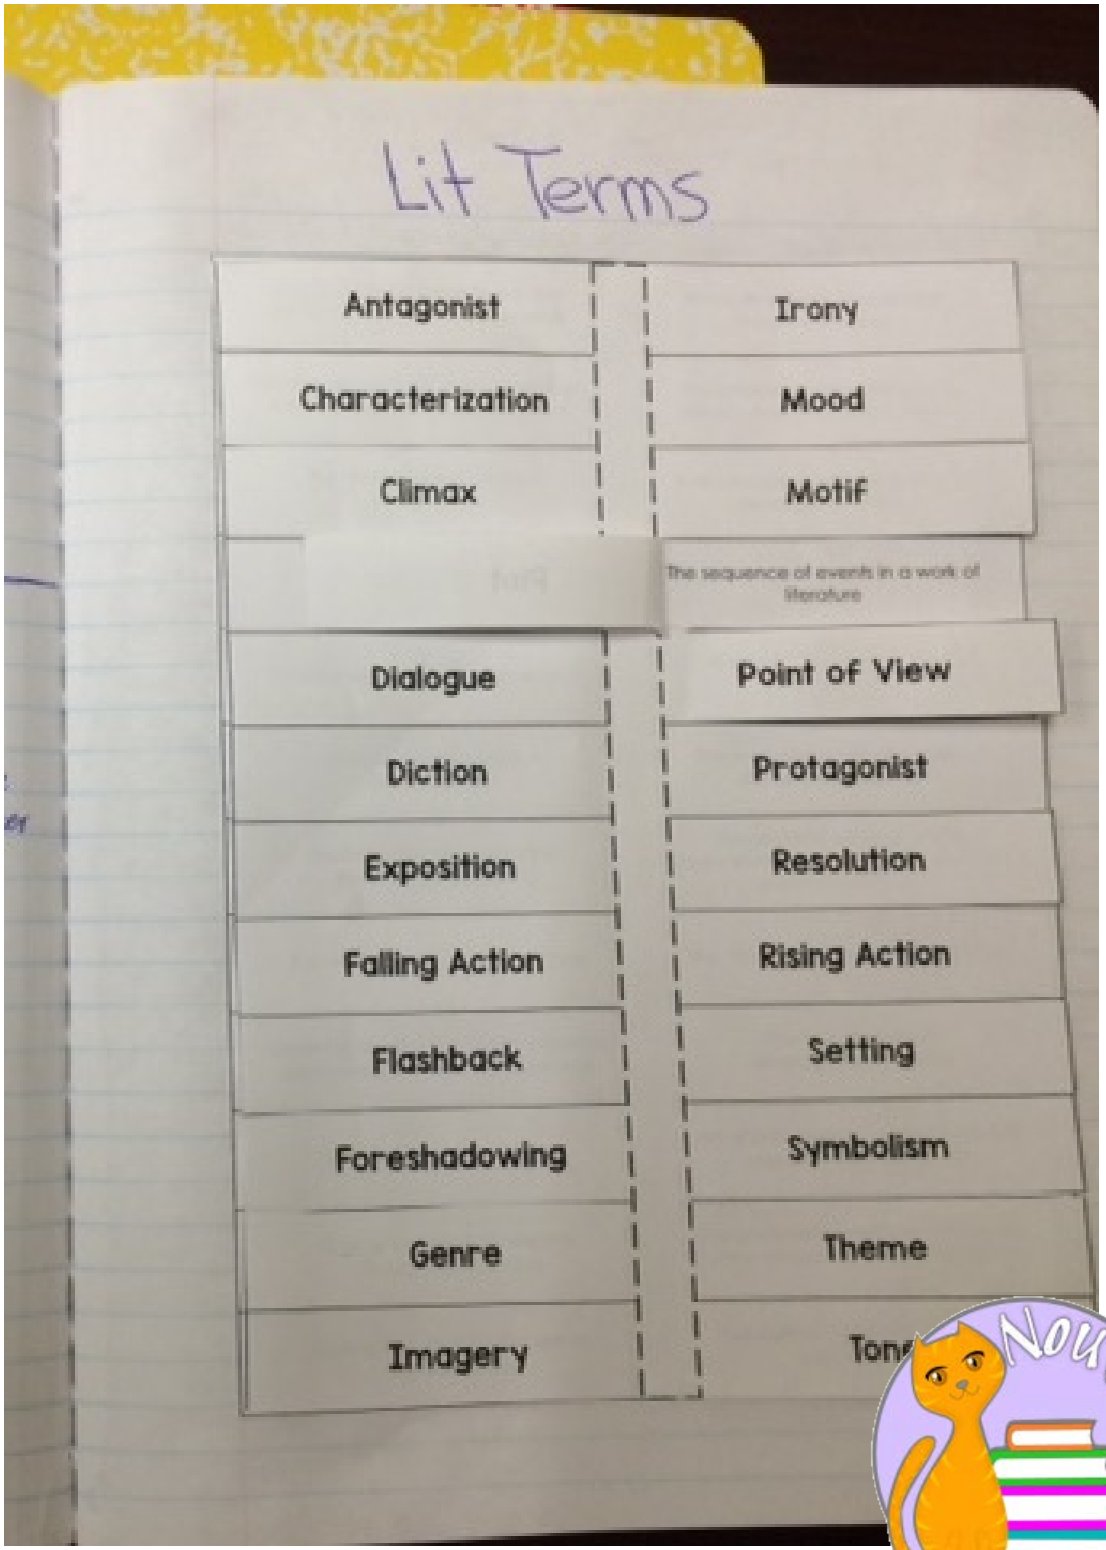

https://www.teacherspayteachers.com/Store/Nouvelle
ELA Vocabulary for Interactive Notebooks © Danielle Hall 2015
License for use by one teacher.
Please purchase additional licenses if necessary.

https://www.teacherspayteachers.com/Store/Nouvelle
ELA Vocabulary for Interactive Notebooks © Danielle Hall 2015
License for use by one teacher.
Please purchase additional licenses if necessary.

https://www.teacherspayteachers.com/Store/Nouvelle
ELA Vocabulary for Interactive Notebooks © Danielle Hall 2015
License for use by one teacher.
Please purchase additional licenses if necessary.

License for use by one teacher.
Please purchase additional licenses if necessary.

| | |
|---|---|
| Antagonist | Irony |
| Characterization | Mood |
| Climax | Motif |
| Conflict | Plot |
| Dialogue | Point of View |
| Diction | Protagonist |
| Exposition | Resolution |
| Falling Action | Rising Action |
| Flashback | Setting |
| Foreshadowing | Symbolism |
| Genre | Theme |
| Imagery | Tone |

https://www.teacherspayteachers.com/Store/Nouvelle
ELA Vocabulary for Interactive Notebooks © Danielle Hall 2015
License for use by one teacher.
Please purchase additional licenses if necessary.

| | |
|---|---|
| A character (or thing) that is the source of conflict in a literary work | When something unexpected happens or is said |
| The way in which the author develops the personalities of the characters | The emotional atmosphere of a piece – how the reader "feels" |
| The "turning point" of the literary work | A recurring feature of a work that develops its theme |
| A struggle between two or more forces (ex. Man vs. Nature) | The sequence of events in a work of literature |
| Direct speech between characters | The perspective from which the story is told |
| Word choice to create a specific effect | The main character of a work – the one we "root for" |
| The background information given at the beginning | The moment when all of the loose ends are tied up and all of the questions answered |
| The results or effects of the climax | The "first hurdles" in the literary work |
| Returning to an earlier time in order to clarify meaning in the present time | The time and place where the story occurs |
| Hinting at what is to come | An object, person, or place used to represent something else |
| Type or category in which a literary work belongs | The underlying main idea of a work – often an opinion about the subject |
| Description evoking the use of the five senses | The author's attitude towards the subject or events |

https://www.teacherspayteachers.com/Store/Nouvelle
ELA Vocabulary for Interactive Notebooks © Danielle Hall 2015
License for use by one teacher.
Please purchase additional licenses if necessary.

Terms of Use

Thank you for your download! By downloading this, you are agreeing to the Terms of Use. Downloads (free and purchased) are made for your use (personal or classroom) only! I retain the copyright and reserve all rights to this product. This means that you:

MAY … use items (free and purchased) for your classroom, your students, or your own personal use. You may used items purchased on your blog, in seminars, professional development, or other such venues PROVIDED that there is both credit given to myself as the author and a link back to my store somewhere in your post/presentation. You may also provide copies of free items only to other teachers, provided that these two credit conditions are met.

MAY NOT … claim the work as your own, alter the files in any way, or attempt to remove watermarks/images/copyright information. You may not sell the files or combine them into another unit for sale or for free. You also may not post the work elsewhere for sale/free on the internet (this includes Google doc links on blogs). Making copies of purchased items to share with others is strictly forbidden and is a violation of the Terms of Use, along with copyright law.

Each time we act, we instill our values in the next generation. Please act in a professional, ethical, and courteous manner while using this product.

If you have questions or encounter an issue while using this product, please contact me and I'll do my best to help you figure things out.

Thank you again for your download! Enjoy!

~Danielle @ nouvelle