Teacher Guide & Answers

Passage Reading Level: Lexile 1100

1. C peacemaker

2. B a time of many achievements in science, industry, and agriculture

3. A "The lesson of past agony is that without the people we can do nothing; with the people we can do everything."

4. D to rally popular support for Nixon's peace efforts

5. A America has the opportunity to bring about peace.

6. C the state of being separate from others

7. B but

8. Suggested answer: Nixon swears to dedicate his energy and wisdom to the cause of peace among nations.

9. Suggested answer: The times are on the side of peace because the people of the world want peace, and the leaders of the world are afraid of war.

10. Suggested answer: Answers may vary and should be supported by the passage. Students should indicate that Nixon views the role of the United States as that of peacemaker in world politics. Supporting evidence includes: Nixon dedicates his presidency to "the cause of peace among nations"; he invites the world to "peaceful competition"; he says that America "seek[s] an open world"; he wants to "cooperate to reduce the burden of arms, to strengthen the structure of peace, to lift up the poor and the hungry."

© 2014 ReadWorks®, Inc. All rights reserved.